Interests

Nancy Corgiat was born in California and grew up in Sherman Oaks, a suburb of Los Angeles. She feels very fortunate to have received a strong Catholic education graduating from St. Francis de Sales Catholic School in Sherman Oaks, and Corvallis High School in Studio City, CA. Relocating to Pocatello in 1990, she returned to school and graduated from Idaho State University in 1994 with a Bachelor of Science in Elementary Education with K-8 endorsement, Master of Education in Educational Leadership with Administration Emphasis in 2009, and Master of Education with Literacy Emphasis in 2016.

She joined the faculty of Holy Spirit Catholic School (then St. Anthony School) in 1996 and taught second grade for ten years before accepting the administrative position in 2006. Mrs. Corgiat has earned the State of Idaho Comprehensive Literacy Certification as well as the Idaho Technology Certification. Mrs. Corgiat has been an active board member of the Southeast Idaho Reading Council for over 20 years, and is a member of the International Literacy Association and the Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development (ASCD). Mrs. Corgiat was honored with the Celebrate Literacy Award 2015 by the South East Idaho Reading Council and the Bellon Visiting Author Series.

Community involvement includes: board member and current Treasurer of the ISU Bellon Visiting Author Series, which brings multicultural children's authors to speak at schools and libraries in the Pocatello/Chubbuck community; active membership and current Treasurer of ADK Idaho Iota, a local chapter of Alpha Delta Kappa, an altruistic international honor sorority for women educators; and longtime affiliation with the Bannock Humane Society. She serves as Eucharistic Minister, Catechist, Sacristan, and Lector for the Holy Spirit Catholic Community.
