

First Grade Music

First graders build on the previous year's experience and add more complex music by adding ostinato and form when playing xylophones and singing simple folk songs. Folk dancing and creative movement add to listening and learning. Families of instruments are discussed, demonstrated and played. Autoharps are played by all classes as well as tongue drums.

